

Brockley Festival of Ideas for Change

Sunday 20 November 2016, 10am-5pm. The Mural Hall, Prendergast Hilly Fields College, SE4 1LE

10:00	Registration	Tea and coffee available
10:30	Festival opens Welcome	Clare Cowen , Brockley Society
	Morning Chair: Anthony Russell
	Session 1: PARTICIPATION AND DEMOCRACY	Sean Coughlan - Broadcaster The future of education Ivo Mosley - Author A constitution for a genuine democracy Swetam Gungah - Mathematical Physicist: Sensible about science Camilla Berens - South East London Community Energy: Creating local energy Michael O'Keefe - Positive Money Change Money, Change the World
11:30	Questions and discussion
12:00	Session 2: A FAIRER WORLD	Natasha Wort - Uniting for Peace How to save the world - A Buddhist's Guide Tassia Kobylinska - Filmmaker, Goldsmiths College Film as social action Lui Smyth - Anthropologist Unconditional basic income for all
12:30	Questions and discussion
13:00	Lunch break	View stalls at back of hall
14:00	Afternoon Chair: Clare Cowen
	Session 3: AN INCLUSIVE SOCIETY	Gabriel Gbadamosi - Writer The creative community as a condition of multicultural society Andy Worthington - Journalist and activist Demonising 'the other': Tackling the rise of racism and xenophobia Rosario Guimba-Stewart Lewisham Refugee and Migrant Network Refugees and their challenges Jacqueline Walker - Author From life to Action
15:00	Questions and discussion
15:30	Session 4: BUILDING A NEW ECONOMY	Bruce Mauleverer QC - The International Law Association International law, to be read on his behalf by Bob Barrett Aeron Davis - Professor of Political Communication, Goldsmiths What has the financial system ever done for us? Helen Mercer - Lecturer in Economics The Private Finance Initiative: how to end the rip-off Oliver Lewis - Campaigner Bring back British Rail Anthony Russell - Cultural Historian An ethos for a social renaissance
16:30	Questions and discussion
17:00	Festival ends	